CASE ID: CAAP-26-625

CASE: AOAO Marine Surf Waikiki v. Pikor, et al.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE OF THE FOLLOWING ACTION IN THIS CASE:

___ Mandatory participation in the Hawai'i Appellate Mediation Program is required.
Date:
Time:
Location:

X Mandatory Participation in the Hawaii Appellate Mediation Program is NOT required.

Rule 3(b) of the Hawaii Appellate Mediation Program Rules (HAMPR) requires that the parties in civil appellate cases selected for the Hawaii Appellate Mediation Program (Program) participate in mediation. Participation is mandatory.

HAMPR Rule 2 provides that civil appeals may be included in the Program, subject to specified exceptions. Cases which have not been selected for mandatory participation in the Program and which do not fall within the exceptions listed in Rule 2 may be considered for inclusion under HAMPR Rule 3(c). Parties who wish to "opt-in" and be considered for voluntary participation in the Program may contact the Program administrator at (808) 539-4237. Additional information about the Program may be found on the Hawaii State Judiciary website at https://www.courts.state.hi.us/wp-content/uploads/2024/09/hacp_ada.pdf.
